Code of Ethics

1. I will, at all times, present my dog(s) and myself in a responsible and professional manner.
2. I realize that my actions are a direct reflection on my fellow Club Members and ultimately United Schutzhund Clubs of America. I will conduct myself accordingly.
3. I will cultivate friendship and common interest among all Club Members.
4. I will, at all times, demonstrate my respect for my fellow Club Members whether in their company or not.
5. I will educate those interested in the sport of Utility Dogs to the best of my ability. I will provide all information available to a potential sports friend, but will always allow the individual their right to decide whether the sport is right for them.
6. I will do my best to educate the public about the sport of the Utility Dog and police/military training and to dispel any misconceptions about the Utility Dog as a sport.
7. If I am actively breeding dogs, I will make every effort to assure the buyers understanding of the dog, its faults and merits, and all terms of the sale. I will not willfully deceive anyone and will be fair, honest and as accurate as possible in all appraisals. I will not knowingly expose any dog or human to disease or unsanitary conditions. I also agree to adhere to the Breeding Policy of Tornado Alley Hundesport as outlined in the Club Bylaws.

8. As a member of Tornado Alley Hundesport, I shall endeavor to abide by this Code of Ethics.

I understand that by violating these above mentioned Code of Ethics that have been set forth by Tornado Alley Hundesport, that I am subject to disciplinary actions including, but not limited to Charges brought forth by the Board of Directors, suspension or expulsion from Tornado Alley Hundesport. By signing and dating below, I hereby agree to all conditions set forth in the Tornado Alley Hundesport Code of Ethics.
